

NAVY FAMILY RESOURCES

INTRODUCTION:

This unit highlights a few of the many community and Navy sponsored resources and programs available to Navy families.

GOAL:

The goal of this module is for you to:

- become aware of resources available to Navy families
- understand the mission of the Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC)
- understand other resources available to Navy families

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES:

- Naval Services FamilyLine www.nsfamilyline.org
- Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC) www.ffsp.navy.mil
- Military OneSource www.militaryonesource.com
- Operation Homefront www.operationhomefront.net
- United Through Reading www.unitedthroughreading.org
- Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society (NMCRS) www.nmcrs.org
- Families OverComing Under Stress (FOCUS) www.focusproject.org
- American Red Cross (ARC) www.redcross.org
- Armed Services YMCA www.asymca.org
- United Service Organization (USO) www.uso.org
- Navy Safe Harbor www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/support/safe_harbor

“There is clear and compelling evidence that a solid command support foundation, underpinned by prepared and informed families, is a major part of unit success.”

ADM Jonathan Greenert